LAW OF NEWSPAPERS.

1. Subscribers who do not give express notice to the contrary are considered as wishing to continue their subscription.

2. If subscribers wish their papers discontinued, publishers may continue to send them until all charges are paid.

3. If subscribers neglect or refuse to take the papers from the office or place to which they are sent, they are held responsible until they settle their bills and give notice to discontinue.

4. If subscribers move to other places without informing the publisher, and the paper is sent to the former direction, they are held responsible. Notice should always be given of the removal.

The Courts have decided that refusing to take a paper from the office, or removing and leaving it uncalled for, is prima facie evidence of intentional fraud.

"HOO YOUR OWN ROW."

I think there are some maxims

Under the sun,

Scarce worth preservation;

But here, boys, is one

So sound and so simple,

'Tis worth while to know;

And all in the single line,

Hoo your own row!

If you want to have riches,

And want to have friends.

Don't trample the means down,

And look for the ends;

But always remember

Wherever you go,

The wisdom of practicing,

Hoo your own row!

Don't just sit and pray,

For increase of your store,

But work who will help himself,

Heaven helps more,

The weeds while you're sleeping

Will come up and grow,

But if you would have the Full ear you must hoe!

Nor will it do only

To hoe out the weeds,

You must make your ground mellow

And put in the seeds;

And when the young blade

Pushes through, you must know

There is nothing will strengthen

Its growth like the hoe!

There is no use of saying

What will be, will be;

Once try it; my lack brain

And see what you'll see!

Why, just small potatoes,

And few in a row!

You'd better take hold then,

And honestly hoe.

A good many workers

I've known in my time—

Some builders of houses,

Some builders of rhyme;

And that they were prospered

Were prospered, I know,

By the intent and meaning of

Hoo your own row.

MISS CHESTER'S DESTINY.

BY REBECCA FORBES.

Fanny Chester was a flirt. Every one, herself included, acknowledged that.

Her old guardian, Judge Spafford watched her perfect recklessness of conduct with an anxious eye. Having no children of his own, he had taken the little orphan, left to his care, into his heart as well as his home. She had a good affectionate nature, good, everything to satisfy him, save the horrible propensity of flirting, which she had evinced almost from her "baby days."

Every specimen of masculine humanity that fell in her way had to bow to her before she let him go; she laughed maliciously at each newly wounded heart.

In vain the judge remonstrated with her; his words had no effect whatever.

"If men are so weak," she would respond with a wicked shake of her head, "I am not responsible. They must bear the consequences."

The judge groaned aloud. While she was young he had cherished that she would become different when older. Now she had emerged into her twenties, and she was decidedly more dangerous than before.

"Do you ever intend to marry?" the judge questioned her one day.

She looked at him gravely for a moment.

"No," she responded frankly.

"My intentions are to remain always as now. I have wealth, beauty, youth, and an affectionate guardian; what more do I require?"

The judge rose to his feet.

"At present, nothing," he returned.

"But the day may come when all those may be swept away. Your wealth, your beauty, your youth, and your affectionate guardian will be smouldering in the dust. In that day, what resource would you have left?"

She smiled and then laughed outright.

"What a doleful picture you have conjured up," she ejaculated. "If ever such an extremity come I will teach, or sew, or do something to support myself. Anything guardie, would be preferable to marrying one of the conceited dandies of the nineteenth century."

You are too hard," the judge rejoined quickly. "There are some men left yet. All are not dreaming popinjays. For instance look at

John Wallace."

The beauty curled her lips disdainfully. John Wallace to be mentioned to her! John Wallace, a poor orphan who had entered her guardians as an office boy, but who had studied and worked himself up until he was admitted to the bar, was too much beneath her in the social rank of society for even his name to be tolerated.

NEW YORK AGENCY.—Hudson & Macie are our only authorized Agents in New York. Their office is at No. 41 Park Row.

CHICAGO AGENCY.—Hudson, Menet & Gay are our only authorized Agents in Chicago.

SAN FRANCISCO AGENCY.—L. P. Fisher, Rooms 20 and 21 Merchants' Exchange Building, California street, is our only authorized Agent in San Francisco to receive advertisements and subscriptions, payable only in gold or silver coin.

To Whom it May Concern.

For the information of the public, we publish the following order of the Hon. E. W. McKinstry, Judge of the Twelfth District Court:

STATE OF CALIFORNIA.

Messrs. Scofield & Warren, proprietors of the "SAN MATEO COUNTY GAZETTE," a weekly newspaper published at Redwood City, in the County of San Mateo, do hereby make, file the written stipulation and bond, with good and sufficient securities, which I have this day approved, according to the second section of an "Act entitled, An Act to protect Litigants," passed by the Legislature of this State on the 29th day of March A. D. 1870. Now therefore, I do hereby designate said newspaper, the "SAN MATEO COUNTY GAZETTE," as the medium in which all Judicial and legal advertising for the County of San Mateo shall be published according to the provisions of said Act.

E. W. MCKINSTRY,
Judge of 12th Judicial district,
of San Francisco this 18th day of April 1870.

To Newspaper Sharps!

My half interest in the GAZETTE newspaper and Job office, together with my half interest in the 'GAZETTE building,' is offered for sale on satisfactory terms. The material is all new, and the paper has a fair circulation which is continually increasing. The GAZETTE has been appointed the "legal paper" of the county for the next six years, and there is no other paper published in the county.

April 23d, 1870. H. A. SCOFIELD.

WHAT DOES IT MEAN?—We mentioned the fact last week of receiving a communication from San Francisco which was forwarded through generosity (?) of the Young Men's Christian Association. The letter was apparently overweight, and it was a wonder to us how it came through the mail with only one three cent postage stamp. We have received a letter from the writer of the communication referred to, who by the way, is a lady of unquestionable veracity, in which she says, "I put two three-cent postage stamps on the letter, fearing it might be overweight" and dropped the letter into one of the U. S. Mail boxes which are so conveniently scattered through the City and how they became detached, or what the Young Men's Christian Association had to do with it, is a mystery to me."

This is a matter that the Postmaster of San Francisco or somebody else connected with the P. O. department should look into. Do parties connected with the Y. M. C. Association have access to the U. S. Mail boxes, so as to detach stamps and then paste their begging slips on the envelopes. There's something wrong somewhere and the matter needs investigating.

FAILED TO PASS.—The bill introduced in the Senate by Mr. Kincaid, authorizing the Supervisors of San Mateo and Santa Clara Counties to donate Stock to the Southern Pacific Railroad, got smothered in the Assembly, and failed to become a law. We make this explanation for the information of several parties who have asked us whether the bill passed both branches of the Legislature.

SATURDAY.—The San Jose Mercury and Patriot are getting off "sass" at each other nearly every day. The Mercury of last Wednesday in referring to a four line item in the Patriot of the previous evening says that the filthy dog that wrote it ought to be kicked out of the community."

BADLY PESTERED.—The San Luis Obispo Standard makes the following complaint: "Cats, dogs, and drunks make the night hideous in San Luis Obispo. We can get rid of the cats and dogs, but the latter animals deponent saith not."

MORE CIRCUS.—Leihy, Lake & Co.'s Great Overland Circus and Menagerie, are advertised to exhibit in this town on next Thursday afternoon and evening, April 28th. This is said to be one of the best Circus companies ever exhibiting on this coast.

AN EDITOR GOING.—J. J. Owen, editor of the San Jose Mercury, announces that he intends starting across the continent on the 8th of next month, and will in the mean time visit Salt Lake city and take a look at Mormonism at home.

ENLARGED.—The S. F. Chronicle comes to us enlarged and otherwise greatly improved in appearance. The Chronicle is irrepressible, and is bound to shine for some time if not longer.

LOCATED.—The State Normal School is to be located across the Cayote to the east of San Jose. The site does not suit some of the San Jose people.

BLOSSOM ROCK.—Col. A. W. Von Smith the Engineer gives notice through the City papers that the grand explosion of Blossom Rock in the bay of San Francisco, will take place at half-past one o'clock this afternoon.

Revels was once excluded from the Senate gallery on account of color.

A dispatch announces the birth of a son to Vice President Col. F. X.

State Appropriation of Public Funds.—The Power to do so Questionable.

The increasing disposition of successive Legislatures to manifest their wonderful generosity by voting away other people's money to the various religious and benevolent institutions in this State, suggest the inquiry as to whether the thing is not being carried a little too far, besides which the question presents itself, whether the Legislature is not entirely exceeding its power in appropriating money for any purpose whatever, except for defraying the ordinary and legitimate expense of carrying on the government. We take the ground that the Legislature has no authority or power to appropriate funds from the public treasury to any Orphan Asylum, Howard Benevolent Association, Ladies Relief Societies or other Associations of a similar character. From the fact that these are all organizations of a beneficial and charitable nature is no reason why the Legislature should take funds from the public treasury for their support, unless the Constitution gives that power.

While these appropriations were confined to the two Orphan Asylums in San Francisco—Catholic and Protestant, no one thought proper to question the propriety of such appropriations, but since every charitable Association from San Diego to Siskiyou, are coming in for a share of the charitable donations from the public treasury, we think it high time that the matter should be inquired into for the purpose of ascertaining whether there is not some limits to the powers of the Legislature as to the disposition to the public funds.

If there is none, then it is easy to see what the result will be—judging from the past. Some dozen or fifteen different association in various portions of the State, were granted donations by the last Legislatures, which amounted in the aggregate to at least $50,000. These donations from the public treasury, will soon be expected to be made to every Young Men's Christian Association every Public Library, every Hibernian Benvolent Society and Odd Fellows Relief Committees, and in fact, there will be no end to institutions which will put in their claims for their share of the public funds. And why not; if there is no limit to the power of the Legislature over the matter of disbursing the public monies, then it is no stretch of imagination to suppose that such a state of things is not improbable.

At every session of the Legislature new applicants put in their claims and they are granted as a matter of course, for the reason that Members are at a loss for an excuse for refusing to do by one institution as they have done for another.

The last Legislature went a step or two farther than any of its predecessors, and authorized an appropriation of $15,000 out of the San Francisco County Treasury, for the relief of the Free School of the Presentation Convent. What is to be understood by the term free-school of a convent, we do not exactly understand, and perhaps it is none of our special business, but to say the least, we think the tax-payers of the City of San Francisco have a right to protest against any such perversion of the public funds of the County. Col. Holt, the County Auditor, has refused to audit the claim, upon the grounds that all of the monies in the treasury belong to a specific fund, and that the money cannot be appropriated for objects not contemplated when the taxes were levied. We think Col. Holt is right—his head is clear on that point.

THE SUCCESSOR COMING.—General J. M. Scofield, has been assigned to the command of the Department of the Pacific, in the place of General Thomas, lately deceased. By the way, why will our contemporaries and everybody else persist in spelling Gen. Scofield's name wrong? It is true, that 'Scho' spell's 'Sco,' and so does 'Asia' spell 'Asia.' The proper way to spell the General's name is without an 'h.' This bit of information is not of any particular importance, but it is correct—such as it is.

AN EDITOR GOING.—J. J. Owen, editor of the San Jose Mercury, announces that he intends starting across the continent on the 8th of next month, and will in the mean time visit Salt Lake city and take a look at Mormonism at home.

ENLARGED.—The S. F. Chronicle comes to us enlarged and otherwise greatly improved in appearance. The Chronicle is irrepressible, and is bound to shine for some time if not longer.

BLOSSOM ROCK.—Col. A. W. Von Smith the Engineer gives notice through the City papers that the grand explosion of Blossom Rock in the bay of San Francisco, will take place at half-past one o'clock this afternoon.

Over $30,000 in bullion was received and coined at the Branch Mint at Carson for week ending on April 9th.

The Difference.

A Chinaman has been arrested in Oak and for an attempt to outrage a little white girl, whereupon the Oakland Transcript, a democratic paper, gives vent to its indignation after the following style:

"Let us have no more of this miserable god and morality doctrine, which would seek to extenuate crimes of the blackest die. Let us hear no more of the docility and good conduct of a race which produces such human monsters as Ah Long, who, if he had his deserts, would now be dangling at the end of a rope, an inviting meal for vultures. Let the law be visited on the wretch to the fullest extent. Let justice be done without fear, favor or affection. Flit Justitia ruat cælum."

We have no apology to make for this Chinaman, for we are in favor of hanging him or any other man who is guilty of committing such an outrage, but when it is taken into consideration that there are not less than 80,000 Chinamen in California, and that such outrages as the one referred to above are of almost weekly occurrence in California, and that this is the first instance on record so far as we remember, in which a Chinaman has been guilty of this offence in this State—notwithstanding they are everywhere employed in families as cooks and house servants, it certainly is bad taste for the Transcript to denounce a "race which produces such monsters as Ah Long." What race did the monster belong to; who outraged and murdered little Maggie Ryan under the wharf in San Francisco? In fact, what race does every other brute belong to who has been guilty of like offence in this State? There is only one answer to these questions, and that is by saying that it is the white race, of which the Transcript editor as well as ourself claim to be a part and parcel. Just after reading the above from the Transcript, our eyes fell upon the following item in the Napa Register of April 16th, to which we call the attention of the Transcript and others who imagine that the Chinese are the only race which furnishes monsters:

"A Maggie Ryan Affair.—A fiend in human shape, went to the house of Mr. Johnston in Mendocino, last week, and in his absence, violated the person of an Indian girl, and so abused her that she died within a week. The perpetrator of the outrage named Buchanan, was arrested, but there being no competent witnesses to testify against him, he was discharged. Judge Lynch ought to have been on hand, and put a quietus upon his repeating a like offense again. Hanging would be too good for such a wretch."

HOW IT WORKS.—Judge McKee of the 3d District Court, has appointed the Oakland Transcript a paper published away from the County seat, as the "official organ" for the County of Alameda, instead of the Gazette, which is published at the County seat. And probably with a view of rendering the "Act to protect Litigants" still more obnoxious to the people, the same judge has selected the Pajaronian as the "official organ" of Santa Cruz County. When it is considered that there are two papers published in the town of Santa Cruz—either of which probably has three or four times the circulation of the Pajaronian, which is published at Watsonville twenty miles from Santa Cruz, the County seat, it is apparent to the most casual observer that Judge McKee is using the law for some other purpose than that of protecting litigants. If his object is to make the law odious he could not possibly do it more effectually than by pursuing the course he has taken. In this connection, we copy the following "metaphorical" comments by Owen of the San Jose Mercury:

"The Pajaronian published at Watsonville, a paper that supported McKee for the judgeship last Fall, has been appointed the "official organ" for Santa Cruz County. While we congratulate Bro. Cummings on the "fat take" that has fallen to his lot, we have a little curiosity to know how the people at the county seat, "twenty-miles away," will take it. In our "mind's eye, Horatio, we see Kooser's ghost of the Sentinel, tearing up and down the sandy beach muttering all sorts of "murder most foul." Borrowing a metaphor from the animal kingdom, K. will undoubtedly thrust his horns into the ground, elevate his tail towards the zenith, paw up the dirt at a furious rate, do some responsible balancing and rush snorting into the chapparel."

Two American ladies—Mrs. Terry and Mrs. Story—are teaching the Romans how to give parties. The Romans are dazzled. The old adage or Story, "When in Rome you must do as Rome does," is slightly reversed by these un-Terry-fied American ladies. The Americans are enterprising and would like to see changes even in Rome, in a liberal way.

More Rich Mines Discovered.

In the Alta of last Wednesday, we noticed a correspondence from San Diego in regard to some rich and extensive gold and silver mines which have recently been discovered near the Apache pass, just over the line in New Mexico. The information of the Alta correspondent was obtained from ex-sheriff S. H. Bowman, of this county, who it seems, is one of the principal operators in the new mines and had just returned from the locality to San Diego. It appears that the mines are located about 650 miles from San Diego in a southeast direction and about 150 miles beyond Tucson and 40 miles from Ft. Bowie. The new district has been christened the "Virginia district" mining laws established, recorder, elected, etc., and at last accounts some 200 miners were at the mines. The location is in the very heart of the villainous Apaches, who are no respecters of persons or nationalities, but murder and plunder whenever an opportunity offers itself. Mr. Bowman says: "that although the reports that had reached him of the wealth and extent of the minerals found sounded too marvelous to seem worthy of credence, yet the half had not been told. He found here ledges which could be traced by the outcropping for a distance of from two to four miles, and varying in width from six to 80 feet, and these outcroppings consisting of quartz which seemed literally filled with gold, silver and copper."

Mr. Bowman brought about 100 pounds of rock from the various ledges which have been shipped to Messrs. Roberts & Harpenden, of San Francisco. The Apache pass is in Arizona but near the boundary line of New Mexico, and consequently the new mines cannot be far from the boundary line of Arizona. It is good country for a white man to go to—unless he is fully prepared with an iron-clad "top-knot."

THE BAND AT BELMONT.—The Redwood City Cornet Band visited the palatial residence of W. C. Ralston, Esq., at Belmont, on last Saturday evening and gave him the benefit of a serenade. Mr. Ralston gave the boys a cordial reception by tendering them the hospitalities of his mansion, besides champagne, wines and cigars etc., to their heart's content. The cornet boys had the honor on this occasion, of dedicating Mr. Ralston's magnificent "music room," which is probably one of the most elegant and costly rooms in the United States. The band returned at a late hour of the night well pleased with their entertainment at Belmont.

THE SAN MATEO CONCERT.—The promenade concert got up at San Mateo, for the benefit of the Episcopal church at that place, came off on last Tuesday evening and proved a grand success. We learn that there was a large crowd present, and that all had a good time. We regretted our inability to be present, but Redwood City was well represented on the occasion. The managers of the Festival have our thanks for complimentary tickets. We have not ascertained the financial result of the Festival, but presume that it was satisfactory to all concerned.

IN LUCK.—The editor of the San Luis Obispo Standard has got a new hat.

Arrested for Robbery—A Couple of Nice Boys.

Sheriff Lathrop arrested a couple of young men near the freight depot in this town on last Wednesday morning about 9 o'clock, upon a charge of robbing the house of their former employer—Mr. J. B. Fox, who resides near Saratoga in Santa Clara County.

From Mr. Fox we obtained the following particulars: The two young men are twin brothers—named Wm. Ralph Glenn and Chas. Glenn, and are both deserters from American man-of-war ships. They are about twenty years of age, and one of them had been in the employ of Mr. Fox for a little over a year and the other one about three months. They are from Brooklyn, N.Y., where their parents reside and are highly respected, their father being one of the reporters of the New York Herald.

On last Tuesday, Mr. Fox went to San Jose, and on returning home just at dark found that his house had been robbed of his wife's jewelry, silverware, double-barrel shot-gun, pair of boots, and some other articles of less value. It then being past the time that the boys should have come in from their work and they not making their appearance, Mr. Fox at once suspected them as being the guilty parties.

He took an early start on the next morning for San Jose and started the officers after the scamps, and also sent dispatches to this place and San Francisco and took the train himself and came as far as Belmont where he left the train, and took the freight train back to this place just at the moment the Sheriff and Constable Valliers of Santa Clara, had intercepted the two boys as they came trudging along up the railroad track from the direction of Menlo Park. All of the stolen property was found in their possession when arrested. They were coupled together and marched to the Sheriff's office in the Court House where we briefly interviewed them about as follows: To the tallest—"What is your name?" Answer, William Ralph Glenn." To the short one, "what is your name?" Answer, "Chas. Glenn."

We said "you are not brothers I suppose?" The short one replied: "yes we are twin brothers and don't you think we are a nice pair!"

They were both inclined to treat their arrest as a funny thing, and appeared to be worthy candidates for the penitentiary. They were taken to San Jose by the officer from Santa Clara where they will probably get sobered down a little after a few days rustication in the County jail.

WOMAN SUFFRAGE.—At a meeting held in this town on last Thursday evening, April 14th, for the purpose of organizing a Woman Suffrage Society for San Mateo county, the following officers were elected: Mrs. Mary Kirkpatrick, President; Mrs. Mott of San Mateo, Vice President; Miss Louisa Westbrook, Recording Secretary; Mrs. Mary Westbrook, Treasurer. The next meeting of the society will be held on Saturday, today, 23d, at 2 o'clock p.m., at the residence of Dr. Kirkpatrick. All who are willing to assist in the work of woman's enfranchisement, are requested to be present.

SUPERVISORS.—The Board held an adjourned meeting on Thursday last and after allowing a bill of $30,000 in favor of the Secretary of State for copies of local laws passed at the late session of the Legislature, and a bill of twenty odd dollars of Reimers & Hill, for supplies to the indigent sick, the Board adjourned until the first Monday in June. There was some road matters to come before the Board, but—they did't.

THE FIRST.—J. Lewis, the colored barber in this town, has the honor of being the first and only colored citizen whose name has been entered upon the "Great Register," of San Mateo County. Mr. Tate, our County Clerk—although a Democrat, has not seen fit to make so big a fool of himself as did many of the Clerks who took it into their heads that the Constitution of the United States didn't amount to a hill of beans in California. We believe, however that all of those smart clerks have weakened, and now make no objection to registering Negroes "or any other man."

EARLY.—Teams have already commenced hauling wood from the Redwoods, to the landing in this town. This is a month—at least, earlier than the same thing has been done in former years.

CEMETERY MEETING.—The annual meeting of the Union Cemetery Association, will be held at the Court-house on next Monday evening at half-past seven o'clock.

I. O. O. F.—The next session of the Grand Lodge of the State of California, will be held in San Francisco, commencing on Tuesday, May 10th.

NARROW ESCAPE.—John Huckins, George Littlejohn and one or two more of our Redwood City boys, went over to the coast last week on a sort of hunting and fishing excursion and from the account of their adventures, it would seem that they had rather a perilous trip, and had a very narrow escape from being "eaten up alive" by an irate Dutchman who undertook to prevent the boys from camping in the public high way near his premises.

EARLY.—We noticed fields of wheat and barley on T. G. Phelps' ranch near Belmont in this County, which are fully headed out, and from present appearances, are bound to yield a good crop. These fields were sown immediately after the early rains last October.

STOP THAT SHOOTING.—Wouldn't it be a good idea for the town council to pass an ordinance prohibiting the discharge of fire-arms within the town limits.

Scarcely a day or night passes without the crack of guns or pistols being heard right in the heart of our town. Shot has occasionally been known to whirl around uncomfortably close to nervous people's ears, and the practice of random shooting ought to be stopped.

RACES.—We are requested by Jack Fleming, to give notice that a horse race is to come off at Amesport, Half-moon Bay, on to-morrow, April 24th. No charge for admission to the track is made at the Half-moon Bay race course.

Married.—In Redwood City, April 3d, by Rev. D. F. Dempsey, John Curran to Lucy Ann Kelly. In Pescadero, April 17th, by the Rev. Wm. Gaffey, Geo. A. Gates to Antoinette Besse. In Seaville, April 18th, by Rev. Hazard, Thomas Davis to Mrs. Rooney.

Births.—In Redwood City, April 11th, to the wife of Peter Leathers, a daughter. In Redwood City, April 13th, to the wife of John Crist, a son.

HOW SOFTLY ON THE BRUISED HEART.

How softly on the bruised heart
A word of kindness falls,
And to the dry and parched soul
The moistening tear drop calls;
Oh, if they knew who walks the earth
Mid sorrow, grief and pain,
The power a word of kindness hath;
Twere paradise again.

The weakest and poorest may
The simplest pittance give,
And bid delight to withered hearts
Return again and live;
Oh, what is life if love be lost?
If man's unfriendly to man—
Or, what the Heaven that waits beyond
This brief and mortal span?

As stars upon the tranquil sea,
In mimic glory shine;
So words of kindness in the heart
Reflect the source divine;
Oh, then be kind, whoe'er thou art,
That breathest mortal breath,
And it shall brighten all thy life,
And sweeten even death.

AWAY WITH CARE.

Away, away with sighs and tears,
Away with care and sorrow;
The storm that wrecks our hopes to-day
May bury grief to-morrow.

It is not meet that man should mourn,
Amid this world of toiling;

For he who looks in Nature's face
Will always find her smiling.

'Tis true, Old Winter will return,
To show his different phases;

But Spring we know will come at last,
To strew the field with daisies.

Then come—away with sighs and tears,
Away with care and sorrow;

The storm that wrecks our hopes to-day
May bury grief to-morrow!

INEBRIATE CHICKENS.—We learn that a singular and very amusing accident happened to the chickens of a Mrs. Hamilton, near Petersville, Tennessee, a few days ago. Her husband bought a bottle of brandy cherries. After eating the cherries, the seeds were thrown out, which the chickens eat greedily. In a short time Mrs. Hamilton found that her chickens were all dead. She told the old negro woman that she might pick the chickens and put the feathers in her bed, which she did readily. After picking off the feathers, she carried out the chickens and threw them away. Night came on; Mrs. Hamilton was sorely grieved at her loss. Sleep soon swept away her troubles. At early dawn she was alarmed at hearing the old chantecler crowing loudly and the hens cackling. Judge her surprise when, opening the door and looking out, she saw every hen and rooster, young and old, grave and gay, marching around, eyeing each other with suspicion, many of them entirely naked, while only a few of them had tail and wing feathers. The cherry seeds made them 'dead drunk.'—Memphis (Tenn.) Appeal.

PAT AND THE MAGISTRATE.—"Please your lordship's honor and glory," replied Tom, "I shot the hare by accident."

"By accident" remarked Capt. O'Halloran.

"I was a-fing at a bush, and the baste ran across my aim, all of his own accord."

"The gamekeeper tells a different story," replied his lordship.

"Och! don't pat faith in what that man says," said Tom, "when he never cares about speakin' the truth, anyhow. He told me t'other day, your lordship was not so fit to fill the seat of justice as a jackass!"

"Ay, ay," exclaimed Viscount Chillington, "indeed! and what did you say?"

"Please your lordship, I said yes your lordship."

"No Catherine," said Patrick to his wife, "you never catch a lie coming out of my mouth." You may well say that," replied Kate; "they fly out so fast that nobody can catch 'em."

"CUBY O'LANUS" ON BOYS.—Some things are said in favor of boys; some trades would not live without them. The glass put in men wouldn't have much to do, and putty would be on the decline, if there were no boys to break the windows.

There would be no customers for the eastern peaches and green apples which come early in the season; but for the boys, the doctors wouldn't have so much to do curing the disease of cholera morbus arising there.

NOT POSTED IN HISTORY.—A youthful applicant for a certificate to teach school presented himself before the Superintending School Committee of a town in Maine, and after having answered correctly several questions in mathematics, he was asked—

"In what year did Columbus discover America?"

The young man paused, and then scratched his head and replied:

"Well Mister, you have got me now!"

"Was it before or after Christ?"

continued the committee man. The youth spent a moment in thought, and then raising his huge fist and striking it upon the desk, exclaimed:

"You have got me again, by thunder!"

The certificate was not granted.
